COMMISSION FOR THE CATHOLIC MISSIONS AMONG THE COLORED PEOPLE AND THE INDIANS.

This Commission for distributing the funds collected annually by order of the Third Plenary Council of Baltimore, in behalf of our missions among the colored people and the Indians, consists of His Eminence James Cardinal Gibbons, chairman, Most Rev. Dr. Ryan, Archbishop of Philadelpdia, and Most Rev. Dr. Kain, Archbishop of St. Louis, Mo.

All remittances and all communications concerning the business of the Commission, should be addressed to the secretary, Rev. E. R. Dyer, S.S., D.D., St. Joseph's Seminary, Yonkers, N. Y.

The Commission has made it a rule to consider only such applications as are received through the Most Rev. and Rt. Rev. Ordinaries and to put at their disposal whatever allocations may be made for the works under their charge.

It will always, be taken as a matter of course, that a mission which does not apply for assistance does not expect a share of the funds. Application must be made every time an appropriation is desired.

THE BUREAU OF CATHOLIC INDIAN MISSIONS.

(Office: 739 13th Street, Washington, D.C.).

The Bureau of Catholic Indian Missions was established in 1874 by the Most Rev. Archbishop of Baltimore, upon the recommendation, and for and in behalf, of the Catholic Prelates having Indian Missions within the limits of their Dioceses, for the purpose of representing before the Government the interests and wants of the said Prelates in all matters pertaining to Indian affairs. It was, by Decree of the Third Plenary Council of Baltimore, which was approved by Rome, recognized as an Institution of the Church, and was by that Council placed under the charge of a Committee of seven Prelates, consisting of His Eminence James Cardinal Gibbons; Most Rev. P. J. Ryan, Archbishop of Philadelphia; Most Rev. P. J. Riordan, Archbishop of San Francisco; Most Rev. P. L. Chapelle, Archbishop of Santa Fe; Rt. Rev. James A. Healy, Bishop of Portland; Rt. Rev. John B. Brondel, Bishop of Helena, and Rt. Rev. M. Marty, Bishop of St. Cloud. In 1894 this Committee was dissolved, and the Bureau as then constituted was superseded by a new corporation chartered by an Act of the Assembly of the State of Maryland—the incorporators being His Eminence James Cardinal Gibbons, Archbishop of Baltimore; Most Rev. P. J. Ryan, Archbishop of Philadelphia, and Most Rev. M. A. Corrigan, Archbishop of New York, and its corporate name being "THE BUREAU OF CATHOLIC INDIAN MISSIONS". The new organization succeeded to all the rights and powers of, and all the property held by, the old incorporation; has adopted laws for the government and guidance of the Bureau, and has selected as its officers the following:

HIS EMINENCE JAMES CARDINAL GIBBONS, President.
RT. REV. MONSIGNOR J. A. STEPHAN, Director.
REV. E. R. DYER, SS., D.D., Treasurer.
CHARLES S. LUSK, Secretary.

The principal work of the Bureau is the establishment of Boarding and Day Schools among the Indian Tribes, and the procurement from the Government of funds for their support and maintenance.

The Schools receiving aid from the Government are distributed among the different Dioceses as follows:

AMERICAN COLLEGES IN EUROPE.

PONTIFICAL COLLEGE OF NORTH AMERICA.—THE NATIONAL COLLEGE OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA AT ROME, ITALY. Founded by Pius IX. and formally opened by him Dec. 8, 1859; raised to the rank of Pontifical College by Leo XIII. by Apostolic Letters "Ubi primum" of Oct. 25, 1884, and destined for the education of students for the Church in the United States of America. Without dispensation from the Pope only students from America are admitted into the College.

Students enter for philosophy and theology, and sometimes also for humanities, and follow the course of the Urban College of the Propaganda for all branches.

A supplementary apartment has been opened lately where a few students are accomodated, that with proper permissions, desire to remain in Rome sometime after their ordination, in order to persue special studies, or to become acquainted with the practice of the Roman Congregations. Very Rev. Wm. H. O'Connell, rector; Rev. John P. Farrelly, D.D., Magister pietatis. Number of students, 65.

AMERICAN COLLEGE OF THE IMMACULATE CONCEPTION OF THE BLESSED VIRRIN MARY AT LOUVAIN, BELGIUM. This College has been established by several of the American Bishops with the consent and approbation of His Eminence the Cardinal Arshbishop of Malines, under the patronage of the Bishops of Belgium, and under the auspices of charitable persons both in Europe and America, who take a lively interest in the missions of the vast American continent.

The object of the institution is to procure for yonng men who desire to consecrate themselves to the missions of North America, a sure and easy means of pursuing their vocation.

The students are taught the English and German languages, and after having gone through a course of theology and having received the instructions necessary for their holy mission and the requirements of the country in which they are to preach the Gospel may be allowed to follow the more profound branches of the celebrated Catholic University of Louvain.

The missionaries educated in the American College are destined to remain secular priests, and, as such, will labor in the places assigned them by their respective Ordinaries.

Applicants for admission must have received the permission of their Ordinary, and must furnish the certificates of good conduct and have aptitude for the study of theology or philosophy. Those who enter after having been ordained priests will be sent to America and become affiliated to a diocese as soon as they are judged sufficiently qualified for the work of the missions. Students who pay their own pensions will have the right of choosing any diocese they please amongst those whose Bishops are patrons of the institution. Those who do not pay for themselves will be at the disposition of the Right Rev. Patrons who secure payment of their expenses. Students whose expenses are paid by burses founded by charitable persons will be placed according to the intention of the founder. Charitable persons in Europe are contributing to the foundation of burses in the College for the purpose of educating young men for the American missions. It is earnestly hoped that the Right Rev. Prelates of America will employ fheir influence to secure similiar foundations for the institution by zealous and charitable persons in the New World.

The Rector would respectfully request the Patrons of the Instituion, as well as other American Prelates who de ire to place students in the College, to inform him of their intention at least two months before the opening of the scholastic year which begins on the first of October.

In case the number of applicants should be greater than can be received, the preferences will be given to the students of those Prelates who have contributed towards the foundations. Students who wish to enter, should be at least sufficiently advanced in their studies to begin philosophy. The annual pension for board including bedding is $140 in advance.

Faculty: Right Rev. Mgr. J. Willemsen, rector and professor of dogmatic theology; Very Rev. W. Stang, D.D., vice-rector and prof. of church history and pastoral theology; Very Rev. J. Canon De Becker, J.U.D., professor of canon law and liturgy; Rev. E. Génicot, S.J., professor of moral theology; Rev. Jos. Huygen, S.J., professor of sacred scripture; Rev. P. De Lattre, S.J., prof. of Hebrew; Rev. L. Delplace, S.J., and Rev. J. P. Boller, S.J., spiritual directors. Number of Students, 91; Priests on the American Mission, 553.

SISTERS OF CHARITY OF ST. VINCENT DE PAUL.

MOTHERHOUSE at St. Joseph's Academy, Emmittsburg, Md. Mother Mariana, supr.

The Sisters of Charity (Filles de la Charité, Daughters of Charity) were founded in Paris in 1633, by St. Vincent de Paul, aided by Mademoiselle Louise le Gras. As their name As their name indicates, the Sisters take charge of works of charity in general. The members are not bound by perpetual vows, but on March 25, of each year take the simple vows of religion. They are governed by a Mother General, who resides in Paris, and is subject to the Superior-General of the Priests of the Congregation of the Mission.

The Sisters of Charity of the United States were founded by the saintly Mother Eliza A. Seton. This devoted lady was the daughter of Protestant parents in whose faith she was educated. She received the gift of faith in 1805 at Rome, Italy, and on June 2, 1809 she established at Emmittsburg, Md., a community which she called "St. Joseph's Sisterhood". Her first companions were Misses Cecilia O'Conway and Mary Murphy, both of Philadelphia. Mother Seton and her ecclesiastical superiors having determined to found the community on the plan of the Daughters of St. Vincent de Paul, she applied to France for Sisters to aid the undertaking. The Mother General consented and four sisters were deputed to come to America and take charge of the work; but their journey was prevented by the government of Bonaparte, which refused to permit the Sisters to leave France. A copy of the French rule was however, obtained, and the sisters began to observe it with certain modifications suited to the circumstances of the country. The saintly Mother Seton passed to her reward January 4, 1821. In 1850 a union was effected between St. Joseph's Sisterhood at Emmitsburg, and the Daughters of Charity in Paris, and on December 3, 1850 the Community of Emmittsburg assumed the habit worn by the Sisters in France.

But three Sisters came to form the New York branch, Sister Rose White and 2 others. When this branch numbered 33 Sisters it seemed desirable to form an independent and separate Community of which Sister Elisabeth Boyle, who succeeded Sister Rose was chosen first Mother superior in 1846. (The Academy of Mt. St. Vincent dates is origin from Sept. 13, 1847.) Mother M. Rose, the present Mother superior is the fifth Mother.

Xavier, the present superioress, and Sister M. Catherine, the Mother assistant. The Sisters occupied first the Ward Mansion, Newark, N. J., but finding it ill adapted for the purpose of a novitiate and boarding school purchased the Chegaray Mansion, Madison, N. J., of which they took possession in 1860. Finding the distance from the railroad station to be a disadvantage to the schools, the Sisters built a new Convent and Academy at Convent Station in 1878, where the Motherhouse is located. SISTERS OF OUR LADY OF THE GOOD SHEPHERD.

Mother Mary of St. Euphrasia Pelletier, the first Superior-General of this Congregation, entered the community of the Sisters of Our Lady of Charity of Refuge at Tours, France, in 1815. She was so well adapted for the work among the penitents, that before she had completed her twenty-first year, she was put in charge of them. A few years later she was elected prioress of the Monastery, the Pope granting the required dispensation, as she had not attained the canonical age. In 1827 she was invited by the Clergy of Angers to take charge of a Refuge, which they were founding on the bequest of a pious widow, and having obtained due authorization from the ecclesiastical authorities, she accepted the call. The House being successfully established, she undertook the reorganization of the Order to further its missionary development. Originally each house was an independent institution. There was no centre for consultation, no source whence weak and struggling foundations might claim aid and sympathy, no way of distributing and interchanging the religious so as to place each sister in the position where the Institute would obtain from her the best service. Mother Mary of St. Euphrasia's plan was the centralization of the Order, Angers should be made the Motherhouse, and the general government of all houses, which should be founded from Angers, should be entrusted to the Superior of said house. She won for her plan the approval and approbation of the Bishop of Angers and other churchmen, also the substantial aid of several wealthy noblemen, as the means which she proposed to realize her plan were eminently practical and her disinterestedness and rectitude of intention evident. In 1835 the Pope approved of the change in the government of the Order, and also the new title Our Lady of Charity of the Good Shepherd of Angers, and declared that under the Generotde the Religious were to continue to enjoy all the rights and priviliges granted to the ancient Order of the Refuge. The growth of the Order of Our Lady of Charity of the Good Shepherd of Angers was so rapid and extensive, that in 1857 Pope Pius IX. issued a Decree dividing the Order into Provinces. SISTERS OF OUR LADY OF CHARITY OF REFUGE.

(Called Good Shepherd.)

The celebrated Rev. Père Eudes, founder of the Congregation which bears his name, had the happiness on his missions, given in the years 1635—1640, of converting several fallen women from a life of sin, who presented themselves, begging him to provide for them a place of refuge where they might do penance. Having assisted them by his alms, he turned them over to the care of some pious ladies, one of whom was Mademoiselle Madeleine l'Amy. He rented a house in Caen in 1641, with the assistance of charitable persons, and as the number of penitents rapidly increased, he introduced the enclosure into the community. The new order was at first directed by Sisters of the Visitation. Père Eudes, desirous of forming his institute according to the spirit of St. Francis de Sales, gave to it the constitutions of the Sisters of the Visitation, with the modifications required by its peculiar character. He decreed that the penitents should not be admitted into the order, but that they should be kept entirely separated from the religious. After the return of the Sisters of the Visitation to their monastery Mother Mary of the Assumption de Taillefer became superior of the community. The habit consists of a robe, scopula, and mantle, all of a white color, with a black veil and silver heart on the breast. Pope Alexander VII. erected the congregation as a religious order by a Bull of January 2, 1666.

The work of the Sisters is to visit and nurse the sick poor in their own houses, and to give religious instruction to children und adults. The Sisters have no schools, but receive children on their leaving the public schools in the afternoon for catechism classes, both for boys and girls: have Sunday and evening meetings for older girls engaged in business houses, also for mothers of families. On weekdays both girls and women do needlework at the meetings; materials are provided for them, and the clothing there made, is given to them. Many converts, or Catholics whose religious education is deficient, are instructed individually and prepared for the Sacraments. The same work is done for the colored people. All the works are undertaken with the view of helping the Souls in Purgatory, not only by prayers, but also by works of mercy spiritual and corporal; and they are entirely gratuitous, nothing being accepted either from the sick poor, the parents of children instructed, or their friends. The Sisters depend upon Divine Providence, and the free gifts of those whose devotion to the Holy Souls prompts them to aid a Society devoted to work for the living and the dead. SISTERS OF ST. JOSEPH (of Carondolet).

The Congregation of the Sisters of St. Joseph was founded in the city of Puy, France, in the year 1650, and rapidly developed itself in most of the chief cities of the land, when the French revolution of 1789 demolished all, or nearly all Convents. After the subsequent restoration of religious Orders in France, the Institute was reorganized in Lyons, which House became the General Motherhouse of the Congregation and the parent of all subsequent establishments. In 1836 six Sisters from the Motherhouse of Lyons, at the request of Bishop Rosati of St. Louis, came to found a House at Carondolet, near St. Louis, which then became the chief Motherhouse in this country, without however being dependent on Lyons. All the Houses of the Sisters of St. Joseph in the United States and Canada, except those of New Orleans, Cincinnati, St. Augustine, Fla., and Savanah, Ga., owe their origin either directly or indirectly to the Motherhouse of St. Louis. As however, in the early days the Institute was considered diocesan, it naturally followed that many Branch or Novitiate Houses should be established, until in 1861, by the authority of His Holiness, Pius IX., the Congregation was reorganized under approved Rules and Constitutions and subjected to the immediate government of a Superioress General who resides at the Motherhouse of St. Louis, and to whose jurisdiction all the Houses thereafter founded by this House, were to be subject.

VISITATION NUNS.

The Order of the Visitation was founded at Annecy (Savoy) in 1610 by St. Francis de Sales, Bishop and Prince of Geneva, and St. Jane Frances Fremiot de Chantal, for the purpose of opening a Retreat to persons desirous of the religious life, too infirm in body to enter an austere Order; there to sanctify themselves by prayer and good works, and to help the salvation of souls, using for that all the means in their power, as prayer, self-sacrifice, charity of any kind compatible with the Rule; retreats and spiritual exercises offered to souls desirous of greater perfection. The intention of the holy Bishop, was not, he says it expressly, to occupy his daughters with the education of young girls, nevertheless, he allowed some few in the monasteries, whose parents destined them to be formed more for solid piety than for the world; and this has been observed almost universally with the said conditions. The Monasteries of the Visitation although spread through all countries even during the life time of the Founder, have no Superior General, they are independent of each other, nevertheless the holy Bishop of Geneva gave them a bond of union, which he deemed stronger than human means. He wished all the Visitation Houses kept in an intimate union, by a mutual Charity, and child-like confidence towards the Motherhouse at Annecy, whose duty it is in return for this to watch with a motherly love over the spiritual and temporal necessities, as well as the keeping up of the letter and the spirit of the Rule. Therefore, any house has the right to refer to Annecy in its troubles or difficulties, and each house more-over owes its assistance to the houses foundet from it. Three Centuries testify to the wisdom of the holy Founder, by the perfect union and preservation of the primitive spirit in the 170 Monasteries existing at present throughout the world. The Visitation was introduced in America in 1799 when the first Monastery was established at Georgetown, D. C. At that time the needs of the country requiring all good Catholics to unite their common strength in the work of Christian education, the Visitation in America had from its first beginning to extend the simple concession of the Founder, making education the principal object of its existence. This naturally made it deviate from the first idea of the Founder, and from the original aspect of the Visitation of 1610.

VISITATION CONVENT (Primitive Observance).

In 1892 Miss Mary L. Abell, daughter of A. S. Abell, Esq., of Baltimore, was inspired with the wish to establish the Visitation in its primitive spirit and rules. She made the proposition of this great undertaking to the Monastery of Wilmington, Del. (founded at Keokuk in 1853 by four Sisters from Montluel, France, and transferred to Wilmington, Delaware, in 1868). The proposition was accepted, and the plan laid out and executed under the guidance of the Right Rev. A. A. Curtis, D.D., Bishop of Wilmington. The Motherhouse of Annecy, sent at the request of the Community two Sisters to establish the Rule, one of whom, Mother Marie Alexandrine de Butler was elected Superior in June 1892. The new Monastery on Bayard ave. was completed in 1893 and on July 31, the transfer of the Community, 32 in number, was made from the Convent on Delaware ave. to its present location.

Statuary.

Years ago, the late famous Professor Joseph Knabl, an artist known throughout the world, not only for his own creations, but for his master mind in all matters of art, was engaged by Mr. Mayer as director of his establishment. He surrounded himself with men of superior talent and taste. The work executed by these artists has spread the fame of the MAYER establishment wherever religion has reared her stately temples. This branch is now under the supervision of Mr. Joseph Leonard Mayer.

The material used is Stone Composition, a specialty of the firm, which admits of a very fine finish, and when decorated will bear very favorable comparison to the finest carved wooden Statues, especially as regards the life-like and devotional expression of the faces, to illustrate which we give here an enlargement of the head of our No. 4 Statue, of the Immaculate Conception 6 feet high, price $98.00, it being absolutely impossible to bring out, in such illustrations as are displayed on page five, the details which have made the Munich Statues so famous.

Pending the completion of a more detailed Catalogue, we invite the Clergy and others to correspond with us in reference to Statues they may need. On receipt of particulars as to Statues required, height, &c., photographs and prices will be sent by return mail.

Special estimates submitted for Statues in Terra Cotta, Wood, Metal, Stone or Marble.

WASHINGTON, D. C., March 19th, 1891.

I am happy to state that the Marble Statue of Mary Immaculate which graces the entrance of our University Chapel, is admired by all, both for its artistic execution and its religious spirit. Many have supposed it the work of some French artist, but I am happy to give the honor to your firm in Munich who executed the work.

The Statues in stone of St. Paul and St. Thomas Aquinas are also much admired as majestic and artistic productions, nor must I omit to mention that the Stations of the cross, also from your Munich firm are considered wonderfully de icate and beautiful.

I am happy to pay this deserved tribute to the religious art of Munich.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

†JOHN J. KEANE, Rector of the Catholic University.

Gouvernment-Asylum for the Lepers. — In September 1897 the lepers have been transported from Batavia to Great Chatillon. Batavia having been considered too far off, and too dangerously to be attained. The Governor beeing very anxious about the matter (for the lepers were very much attached to Batavia) he addressed himself to His Lordship the Bishop, if he would be as kind as to order his Clergy in Batavia to help the Governor in this way. The petition was very kindly granted and His Lordship the Bishop together with the Clergy of Batavia accompanied the lepers from Batavia to their new home.

From all Houses missions are undertaken to the Indians and Negroes (the latter after the emancipation withdrew into the woods, to live there an independent life free from all tax and are called wood-negroes, to distinguish from the others more civilized, living on the estates and in town) spread all over the country in 44 camps. 75 plantations are visited by the missionaries, who are pretty welcome by the managers of the plantations, most of whom are Protestants or Jews. Mass is offered in private houses, cabins or chapels built out of palms. There have been built lately two pretty chapels of wood, one at Estherslurt, another at Marienburg, a large estate on the river Commewyne.

The Xaverian Brothers, whose Novitiate is established in this diocese, are doing much good, especially in the cause of Christian Education. Theological Seminary,

BEATTY P. O., WESTMORELAND CO., Pa.

This Institution was founded in the year 1846, by the late Archabbot Boniface Wimmer, O. S. B., and incorporated with powers to confer degrees by an act of the Legislature on the 28th of April, 1870. It is conducted by the Benedictine Fathers.

The College is 40 miles east of Pittsburg and rendered easy of access by the Pennsylvania Railroad passing through its lands. Its location at the foot of the Chestnut Ridge is most picturesque and healthful. The buildings are large and commodious, well heated by steam and lighted by electric lights.

The play-grounds comprise 26 acres, including 6 acres of oak forest. A magnificent gymnasium has just been completed, which offers ample opportunity for physical exercise in rainy weather.

There are three distinct courses of study—the Ecclesiastical, the Classical, and the Commercial—besides an elementary School for beginners. In all these special attention is paid to Religious Instruction.

The Students are divided according to their ages, into three classes, each of which has its own study-hall and dormitory and is under the control of two prefects.

Students are admitted at any time of the school-year. Applicants from other institutions are required to produce certificates as to their good moral character.

"THE FLIGHT."

A Quarterly published by the Institute of Mission Helpers—a Community of white Sisters devoted to missionary work. Their Mother-House is in Baltimore, Md., and the proceeds of this little magazine enables them to carry on their Apostolic labors.

The spiritual benefits will be found in the magazine.

To the Friends of the Mission Helpers, our Subscribers and Angels:

OUR HOLY FATHER'S BLESSING.

"Mother M. Joseph, of the Mission Helpers, humbly prostrate at the feet of Your Holiness, begs you to grant to the Angels and Subscribers of "THE FLIGHT," the Apostolic Blessing and Plenary Indulgence in "Articulo Mortis," in the usual form of the Church as prescribed by the Apostolic See." (Signature as on accompanying cut.)

Votum benigne annuit pro gratia
Ex Aedibus Vaticanis die 11 Junii 1895
+ J. Archiep. Ephesinus Secretarius

The Sisters visit Hospitals, Jails, the Penitentiary, Almshouses and other public Institutions in Baltimore and Washington to the number of thirty-one. They have sewing schools, which are means to Catechism, in nine different parts of the city and counties.

They also visit the homes of the Poor.

The Sisters also go to other portions of the state to prepare classes for first Holy Communion and Confirmation. Not teaching parochial schools, Divine Providence is their only reliance, hence a vocation to this institute demands in an heroic degree, earnestness of purpose and a love of the Cross.

All the works are done for the suffering souls,—all the members of this Community making the "Heroic Act." They suffer, work and pray for the souls in Purgatory.

EPIPHANY APOSTOLIC COLLEGE, Highland Park, Baltimore, Md.

Nine Millions of the African Race Are in this country, less than two hundred thousands of whom are members of the True Church. More than half do not profess any sort of Christianity, and of those who do, a great proportion follow but low and superstitious forms of the more vulgar Protestant sects, yet the colored people are naturally intelligent, have admirable moral qualities, and are remarkably gifted by nature with the religious sense, being fond of participating in public worship, easily lead to accept the truth of revelation, and have a bright perception of the beauties of a moral and religious life.

THE HARVEST IS GREAT, In one word, there is a ripe harvest of converts ready at our very door. A whole race of men, newly elevated to the dignity of American citizenship, whose career in the world is barely beginning, are willing to hear the Word of Life, and whose future depends upon Holy Church's success among them.

DIPLOMAS

Diploma Making is Our Business

OUR Diplomas went into every state in the Union last year, and they gave satisfaction in every case. This year our line will be greatly improved. If you are going to use Diplomas, write us for our catalogue.

It stands to reason that a concern making a specialty of the diploma business can give you better results than one that fills only an occasional order.

We have been making a specialty of CATHOLIC ACADEMY AND SCHOOL DIPLOMAS, and will have a line of parochial school Diplomas ready for the coming school year. Samples will be ready about March 1.

We have a line of Programs and Invitations just as good as our Diplomas, sent for the asking.

THE very best argument in favor of binding books and magazines is that it increases their value many times the cost, and preserves valuable and costly publications.

GENTLEMEN:—

For the past three years I have been using your wines for Altar purposes at St. Prokopius Abbey. I have thoroughly satisfied myself that they are absolutely pure and I have always found them uniform and excellent in quality and, in short, just as you represent and guarantee them.

For a pure Wine, which has not been treated but has "made itself" I heartily recommend yours.
